One Week Faculty Development Program

(June 13th-19th of 2016)

Founded in 2002 as Jyothi Engineering College, The institute was ranked as fourth best engineering college in the state in recognition of its academic excellence by the directorate of technical education, Trivandrum and received academic excellence award from the university of Calicut in 2013 & in 2014.

The college has since grown by leaps and bounds establishing excellence infrastructure replete with state-of-art laboratories, digital library, smart class rooms, hostels, gyms, auditoria spread over an impeccably clear and green 25 acre campus-on way to fulfill the vision of the Catholic Arch diocese of Trichur to make it truly world class

FDP on "Performance based Work Ethic" is an initiative by PAT@JEC, Training & Development Cell. The learning process objectives of this FDP are three-fold namely:

1. Introduce Performance Management System and a culture of setting, meeting and exceeding goals
2. Provide opportunities for "Team Building" within Departments
3. Insights in to "Research & Publication", "Communication", "Latest Technology Trends" and "Teaching Learning Processes for the 21st Century Ecosystem".

Outcomes envisaged are:

1. Goals being set for each and every teaching staff for the next 6 months
2. Performance Management System Awareness
3. Team building within Department
4. Exposure to Research & Publication and there by increased publications from college
5. Enlightenment on "Latest Technology Trends", "Communication" and "Teaching Learning Processes for the 21st Century Ecosystem"

FDP Report Day one

Faculty Development Programme FDP on "Performance based work ethic" commenced on the 13th until the 17th June 2016. The main objectives of the FDP were:

1. Introduce Performance Management system and a culture of setting, meeting and exceeding goals.
2. Provide opportunities for "Team building" within departments.
3. To gain an insight into "Research and publications", "Communication", "Latest Technology Trend" and teaching learning processes for the 21st century ecosystem.

Day 1: 13-06-2016 (Monday)

The FDP commenced with an invocation prayer by Mrs. Swarthy Wilson from the CSE Department. This was followed by a welcome address by Rev. Fr. Roy Vadakkan, (Asst. Manager Academics and Administration), who emphasized on the mission and the vision of the college. He also inspired us with moments of optimism and happiness and to create value for the students which can make a huge difference in the coming academic year. Dr. K.K. Babu (Principal) reiterated the importance of the academic aims of 2016-17. He stressed the need for being self-driven and that our passion, zeal and the motivation can only lead us down the path to success. As the NBA and NAAC inspection is round the corner, he encouraged the staff to go beyond the call of duty and perform the required duties and obtain a good score in the coming inspections.

In his speech he highlighted the responsibilities and characteristics of a good mentor. Teachers played a pivotal role in shaping the nation. He said that the teacher is the yardstick for measuring the aspirations and achievements of the nation. He wished all the faculties to be the real "Jyothi" for the students and the nation at large.

Rev. Fr. Roy Vadakkan followed it up with a lively session for one hour about "Quality of work life". In his speech he revisited the mission and vision of the college and essayed the role of faculty in achieving them. He also reminded that one should enhance their personal lives through their work environment and experiences. He concluded saying that the life is a bundle of strands and that we need to learn to balance the work life with other related issues.

Lunch was served in the canteen for all the faculties present. Mr. Sooraj Krishnan from the Civil Engineering department serenaded the audience with a lovely song, post lunch session. In order to encourage participation from all the faculty members, Mr. Joshy Joseph (Director for Placement and Assistance) introduced a point based competition. He explained the point system which will conclude with a trophy for the winning team at the end of the entire programme. This triggered a lot of participation and competition from the staff who were divided into groups based on their departments. In the process Mr. Joseph Joshy explained about "Performance Management System" which was deftly done in order to inspire better learning methods amongst teachers and institute a grading system in the college. He also, in his speech outlined some reasons as to why engineering colleges are in a crux and elucidated the rationale surrounding the dearth of quality in the current education system.

With Mr. Joshy Joseph, giving a brief note on the summary of what was done during the day, the first day sessions were concluded with the Jyothi anthem.

Day 2: 14-06-2016 (Tuesday)

The second day events started with a prayer followed by a three hour long session by Dr. M. Balagopalan (Ex MD of Coirfed, Alapuzha, Retired Scientist from Kerala Forest Research Institute and Head, Dept of Chemistry, JECC). He said a professional life became more complete with paper publications which have to be done on a periodic basis. Publishing papers gives you a feedback from research scholars who read your papers; it establishes you as a member of the research community and also it forces you to clarify your ideas and to fit them in the context of the current state of research in your field.

He lucidly explained the "H" index and the impact factor. Post lunch session was initiated by a melodious song by Mr. Lippin from the ME Department. Mr. Joseph Joshy engaged all the departments in a serious competition with activities unseen before. In order not to lose points for late coming after break times, the members were prompt in returning to their seats. The games were hotly contested which invariably saw a continuous seesaw among the departments' standings.

Er. Thomas Mathew (Joint Secretary, Thrissur and Educational Trust, Retired Executive Engineer, KSEB and Administrator JECC) played a vital role in shaping the history of JECC. A session by him "Integrating Past & Present" outlining the growth and the challenges JECC faced over the years, refreshed our memories. When it was time to move to the final session Mr. Joseph Joshy (Former Group Manager, Infosys and Corporate Guest Trainer at Infosys Leadership Institute (ILI) took over the proceedings with a talk on "SMART" goals and Performance Measures. He said SMART goals bring a structure and ability to track into our goals and objectives. Instead of vague resolutions, it creates verifiable trajectories

Mr. Joseph Joshy hinted at the setting of objectives to be SMART (Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Realistic and Time Bound) the objectives and goals for the following year were also listed out by the departments in conjunction with what was advised. Mr. Joshy also said that becoming an excellent college teacher is a continuing life-long professional challenge, the results of which are certain. Senior faculty should assume a responsibility to develop additions and modifications to the best practices list and actively transmit those practices to the new faculties. After the lunch session, the HOD's of the respective departments charted out their objectives and goals in tandem with the SMART criteria. The students need to engage in problem solving or team working experiences and that's what this new paradigm shift offers. The focus was shifted to a game which involved team building skills. All the faculties were divided into groups of ten members. They were given some building materials in the form of balloons and balls etc.

The teams were required to build a lengthy structure and whoever makes the lengthiest structure and manages to place a ball on top wins the prize. The mechanical department won with ease displaying a commendable team effort and ability.

The next session was handled by Mr. Bobby Peter (Retd. Asst. Director, Technical Education Department, Govt of Kerala and Asst. Administrator, JECC).

He pinpointed the scenes behind the administration aspect with hilarious instances of his experiences with JECC. His talk made many split into peals of laughter. The session immediately after post lunch was presented by Rev, Fr. Joju Chiriyankandath (Treasurer, Trichur Educational trust and Assistant Manager (Finance), JECC. This was followed by a session with Rev. Fr. Jinto Pereppadan (Assistant Manager (Projects) JECC who gave a brief speech on the projects ahead of us in the near future. The day concluded with the Jyothi anthem.

Day 5 17-06-2016 (Friday)

After the customary prayer, the day started with a note on the importance of communication by Mr. Joseph Joshy. Proper communication is the key to good relationship. This was elucidated by Dr. Usha Menon (Social Upliftment and Environment Preservation Practitioner, Head, Dept of English, JECC) through "Beginning of simple and harmonic communication". She explained the processes of an effective communication explaining briefly the grammar sections quite lucidly.

The Basic Science & Humanities group displayed some culinary skills with cutting and cooking methods to which the audiences were in awe. The fitting finale of the session was a mouthwatering snack and a dessert made by the faculties themselves. The rest of the faculties were taken by surprise and were in for a lip smacking treat.

The post lunch session was organized paying a special tribute to Mr. K.T. Joseph, who served more than fourteen years with JECC as the project engineer. He gave a memorable speech and was felicitated with a gift by the Principal, Administrator, Asst. Administrator and all the Assistant managers.

The concluding session began with the Valedictory function, an FDP visual summarization. Video clips from all the days gave us an opportunity to reminisce the last few days and brought many a smile on the face of the audience. The filled in feedback forms were collected by the PAT department. Asst. Administrator Mr. Boby Peter delivered the vote of thanks.

DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

FDP: How to Write a Research Paper

Report

The Computer Engineering Students Association (CESA) and R & D Cell of Jyothi Engineering college jointly organized a one day FDP on "How to Write a Research Paper". The program was on 10/11/2016 in the Insight hall. The program included 3 sessions – Structure of the paper, Language and Plagiarism by Dr. Usha Menon, Research – a stray thoughts by Dr. V P Mohandas and Intellectual Property rights by Dr. C K Raju. There were 62 participants (31 PG students and 31 Faculty members). The participants got an idea about the selection of research area, the preparation of the thesis paper and about intellectual property rights.
